

MEVLEVI ORDER OF AMERICA

CDs and Video

CD – Introduction – Zikr No. 1

Come say the name of Allah, and clean the rust from the heart.

Formerly published by Sufi Ruhaniat International as “Sufi Zikr No. 1”, this CD is a recording of a Zikr led by Postneshin Jelaleddin Loras at Mendocino Sufi Camp in 1982. Beautiful musicianship and a multi-part vocal testify to Jelaleddin Efendi’s very close work with the Zikr participants in the early days of the M.O.A. in the Bay Area.

CD – The Breeze at Dawn

Recording of a performance by Arif Biçer, Mustafa Yilmaz, Celalettin Biçer and our U.S. musicians Nurriddin Crammatte, Jemaluddin Henke, Talia Marcus and Andrea Walls in Portland in December, 2003. Arif plays Ney and is an amazing singer. Mustafa plays Saz, and also sings Ilahis, Celalettin plays Kanoun.

CD – Ayni Jem

Necati Çelik, Umer Erdogdular and Ahmet Erdogdular from Turkey headline this amazing performance of Mevlevi Ilahis. They are accompanied by our U.S. musicians Nurriddin Crammatte, Jemaluddin Henke, Rashid Patch, Talia Marcus, Hank Levin and Andrea Walls. Necati is master of the Turkish Oud, performing regularly with the Istanbul Radio Symphony. Umer is a Ney player of great accomplishment and sensitivity, Ahmet sings the Ilahis very beautifully as well as reciting verses from the Koran.

DVD – Estafurrallah Zikr

Recorded in August, 2004 at the Teacher’s Retreat of the Mevlevi Order of America, Postneshin Jelaleddin Loras leads the teachers and center leaders, as well as Semazens from Ashland, Oregon in the Estafurrallah Zikr. Jelaleddin Efendi developed the Zikr for us at this time, in which we recite “Estafurrallah”, meaning, “Please forgive me, Lord, for every moment I am not with you.” Zikr participants are accompanied by Jemaluddin Henke on Ney, Talia Marcus on Violin and Viola, and Salih Bloombaum on Bendir. This DVD is designed to help those wishing to learn the Zikr.

DVD – Sohbet

Recorded December 17, 2005 at the Hayati Dede Institute in Konya, Turkey. Postneshin Jelaleddin Loras hosted a gathering of Sufi teachers and students who traveled to Konya for the annual commemoration of Shebi Arus, Mevlana Jelaluddin RUMI’s return to the beloved. Oruc Guvenç, Sherif Baba, Etem Karadag and Yasar Guvenç share stories of Suleiman Hayati Dede, and give guidance on the Sufi path. Barehuda Tanrikorur shares her photographs and recollections of meeting Dede in 1976, and her studies with him.
